

History of Moncton – Claire Forsythe

The city of Moncton, New Brunswick was originally found by the Mi'kmaq. Moncton was the first native American village in 1698 taken by the French. However, the Germans took over in 1763 and the loyalists in 1784. The city was named after Lt. Col. Robert Monckton, the British military commander.

In 2002, Moncton become Canadas first Bilingual City

Moncton Tidal Bore

This happens twice daily. A surf able wave on the Petitcodiac River.

Robert Monckton

Gordie Drilow

Hockey Hall of Fame. He played for the Montreal Canadians.

Russ Howard

Two-time World Champion and Olympic gold medalist in curling.

Rhéal CORMIER

1997

Rhéal Cormier
Canadian Professional
Baseball Player

History of Moncton – Claire Forsythe

World’s Largest Lobster
The lobster Capital – Shediac, NB

RCMP Memorial
3 soldiers that passed away in 2014 Moncton shooting.

Robb Wells
Actor in “Trailer Park Boys”

Hopewell Rocks
Interesting rock formation that allows people from all over the nation to come explore.

History of Moncton – Claire Forsythe